

Resume

Robert P. Stein
P O Box 151
New Milford, New York 10959

Office Phone: (845) 987-1355
email: robst@optonline.net

WORK EXPERIENCE:

SUNY Purchase
Purchase, NY

Lecturer: Currently teaching an upper level college course on Childhood Psychopathology. Have utilized an independent website, "Blackboard" a computer based classroom aid and powerpoint presentations.

Seton Hall University
South Orange, NJ

Graduate Student: Analyzed intelligence data using "open source data." Researched and analyzed Weapons of Mass Destruction (WMD) issues, particularly threats posed by chemical and biological weapons. Analyzed and problem solved issues such as an Iranian declaration involving possession of nuclear weapons. Applied various negotiating techniques in practice sessions. Collaborated with others in extensive analysis and evaluation of game theory and international crisis intervention. Conducted individual study of intervention on behalf of the Kurds following the Gulf War as part of a humanitarian interventions class. Analyzed and evaluated the delivery of relief supplies and the subsequent establishment of a political system in the Kurdish region. Possess a high knowledge level of diplomacy and international relations. Progressively developing a strong understanding of U.S. policies and relationships toward the United Nations system and other international organizations. Studied and analyzed the group dynamics associated with terrorist and religious groups. Incorporated results of studies in lesson plans and course materials. Studied and analyzed various world leaders and their decision making processes. Performed several analyses of European decision making. ACCOMPLISHMENTS: US Participant NORSEC Graduate Student Conference on Baltic Security (Nato & Atlantic Treaty Association Sponsored), Helsinki, Finland - April 7-9, 2005, Participant University visit to European Union institutions and reception at US Ambassador's residence May 17-27, 2003. Focused on personality dynamics and the effect they had on negotiations and decision making

New York City Department of Education
Committee on Special Education
New York, NY

Bilingual (Spanish) School Psychologist: Part time employment: 9/92-6/95. Conducted psychological testing and placement of students. Evaluated persons ranging from pre-school age to adult. Advised school administration on placement and discipline decisions in accordance with federal and state guidelines relating to disabled students. Participated in various suspension and impartial hearings related to students' placement. Provided consultation services for the Committee on Special Education. Performed case management, assisted in crisis counseling, including suicide risk assessment and evaluation of dangerousness. Utilized experience in conflict resolution to resolve issues and concerns. Provided guidance to classroom teachers on learning interventions and classroom management techniques. Conducted therapeutic crisis intervention. Collaborated with school personnel and student's parents. Testified in court situations. Supervised and assigned tasks for a clerical assistant. ACCOMPLISHMENTS: Recognized for extensive experience in crisis counseling and risk assessment and have been called upon as an expert to testify in court. Selected to serve on the Regional Crisis Intervention Team.

SUNY Rockland Community College
Suffern, NY

Adjunct Instructor: Full time employment:1/04-08/04 Instructed courses in General Psychology, Abnormal Psychology, Behavior Disorders, Adult Developmental Psychology and Child Development. Researched subject matter and developed lectures and related course materials to include instruction on group dynamics. Produced PowerPoint presentations utilizing multi-media technology to enhance the learning environment and to emphasize the learning outcomes. Administered tests and performance evaluations to assess student achievement. ACCOMPLISHMENTS: Created and maintained an online website that improved and enhanced students' knowledge of classroom topics, updated each semester

Enlarged City School District of Middletown
Middletown, NY

School Psychologist: Performed psychological evaluations and consultations with students. Provided district-wide bilingual evaluations in Spanish, as needed. Counseled on both an individual and group basis. Served on both a CSE District Committee as well as the school Student Study Team. Coordinated activities of the school crisis intervention team as well as the county crisis team. Assisted in both crisis and regular counseling. Developed and updated course materials and provided instruction to crisis team members. Coordinated with the school principal and reported all crisis incidents in a timely manner. Consulted with classroom teachers on learning intervention strategies and classroom management of difficult students. Conducted therapeutic crisis intervention and served as liaison between school personnel and student's parents. Performed assessment of dangerousness for suicidality and violence. Reviewed and evaluated data on entering students and made determination for placement in the school system or in a more restrictive location. Supervised the school Crisis Management Team. Assigned tasks to crisis team members. Gathered and consolidated data and facts on incidents. Assessed information and rendered final decisions regarding all incidents. ACCOMPLISHMENTS: 1999-2003, Middletown School District, received perfect appraisals ratings for 5 consecutive years for outstanding job performance. 1992-1999, Middletown School District, received excellent appraisal ratings for 7 consecutive years for superior work performance. Recognized for establishment of the Middletown High School crisis team

Los Angeles County Children's Center
El Monte, CA

Children's Treatment Counselor II: Part time employment: 3/86-11/86. Performed on-unit supervision of children. Applied behavioral modification techniques, socialization skills retraining, and casework coordination. Duties also consisted of controlling inappropriate behavior, and comforting distraught minors.

Superior Court of California
Juvenile Court Evaluation and Guidance Unit
Orange, CA

Post-Doctoral Psychologist Intern.
Performed court ordered psychological evaluation on both minors and adults; cases focused on family court type issues. Conducted crisis-intervention and psychotherapy on incarcerated minors in the juvenile detention facility and on minors in the county children's shelter

Shamrock Meats Incorporated
Vernon, CA

Assistant Superintendent: Effectively supervised approximately 75 employees in beef production unit. Ensured production goals were accomplished in a timely manner. Maintained accurate livestock records. Performed quality control of beef inventory. Coordinated inspection activities with USDA federal meat inspectors, including quarantine of tainted beef, ensuring safety and sanitation requirements were maintained in accordance with government regulations. Served as a member of the plant safety team. Negotiated PM shift work with the meatpacker's union. Managed plant security. Supervised evening plant improvement program in coordination with the engineering department. ACCOMPLISHMENTS: Maintained operational efficiency and productivity level of plant at all times meeting and/or exceeding established goals and objectives

EDUCATION: Highest level achieved: Post Doctorate.

M.A. Seton Hall Univ., S. Orange, NJ, US, 2005, Diplomacy & International Relations ,	3.81 GPA, Total Hours: 45
Ph.D. Alliant International University, San Diego, CA, US, 1982, Psychology,	3.18 GPA, Total Hours: 60
M.A. California State University, Los Angeles, CA, US, 1980, Psychology,	3.27 GPA, Total Hours: 60
B.A. California State University, Long Beach, CA , US, 1976, Psychology,	3.06 GPA, Total Hours: 90

LICENSES/CERTIFICATES:

Licensed Psychologist	State of New York ,1991; Permanent;
Certified School Psychologist	State of New York, 1992. Permanent;
Certificate of Continuing Bilingual Eligibility (Spanish)	State of New York, 1993. Permanent;
Worker's Compensation Board Authorization	State of New York, 1996. Permanent;
Vocational & Educational Services for Individuals with Disabilities (VESID)	State of New York, 1996. Permanent;
Licensed Bilingual(Spanish) School Psychologist	City of New York, 1995. Permanent.

ADDITIONAL EXPERIENCE:

FEMA/CMHS Crisis Counseling Assistance & Training Certificate, Project Liberty, 06/05
Critical Incident Stress Debriefing Certificates, (ICISF), 12/98, 6/99
Adjunct Instructor, Orange County Community College, 9/89 - 12/89
Track/Cross Country Coach, Chapel Field High School - Pine Bush, New York, 2000-2001
Training Certificate - Coach, Outdoor Track, OCIAA

MEMBERSHIPS:

Officer Candidate – New York State Air Guard (Division of the New York State Militia)
Association of Former Intelligence Officers; Associate Member 2006-present
American Psychological Association #7271-6702, Member 1995-present. (Military Psychology Division).
International Strategic Studies Association, Member 2004 – present.
Institute for Trade, Standards and Sustainable Development, Member Advisory Board, 2006 – present.
Carmelite Father's Misconduct Review Board, Member, 2003 – present.
United Nations Association of the United States, Member 2002-2005.
World Affairs Council of Los Angeles , Member, 1981 to 1986.

SKILLS:

Management, supervision, leadership, communications (verbal/written), presentation, computers, typing, interviewing, research, analysis, customer relations, training, instruction, decision making processes, negotiations, group dynamics, conflict resolution, crisis counseling, mediation, word processing, Excel, Power Point, webpage design.

PAPERS: Specialization in European diplomacy & security relations. Partial listing includes:

Private Military Corporation & their Role in US Defense Planning
European Union Headline Goals and Military Modernization
Arms Control & the Reykjavik Summit
China, Taiwan & Sino-US Relations
US-China Relations & the Open Door Policy
European Union & Its Relationship with NATO
Neo-Realism & the Iraq War
Analysis of the Policies of Secretary General Boutros Boutros Ghali
The EU & Arms Proliferation
EU Diplomacy & the Bosnia Conflict
The roots of Prague Spring and the subsequent Soviet Invasion. PUBLICATIONS: conducted research for "Precautionary Preference: How Europe's New Regulatory Protectionism Imperils American Free Enterprise" by Larry Kogan 11/05. Interviewed & quoted regarding behavioral dynamics in "Rediscovering Intellectual Property" (Brazil & Intellectual Property Theft) by Larry Kogan, in negotiation regarding publication.

LANGUAGES: Spanish (fluent), German (conversational), Arabic (one semester 09/05), French, Hebrew (basic)

CONFERENCE PARTICIPATION:

US Representative NORSEC Graduate Student Conference on Baltic Security (Nato & Atlantic Treaty Assoc Sponsored), Helsinki, Finland-April 7-9, 2005, grad student rep-Seton Hall visit to EU institutions. Receptions at NATO, the EU Parliament, the EU Court of Justice, the Luxembourg Palace and US Embassies to EU & Luxembourg May 17-27, 2003.

OTHER EXPERIENCE:

Therapy, Consultation & Assessment: Project Liberty, New York, NY (04/04-07/04) School Based Crisis Intervention
Carmelite Fathers' Misconduct Review Board (11/03 - present) Middletown, NY
Valley Behavioral Medicine - Psychotherapy (09/00 – 01/05) Goshen, NY
Industrial Medical Associates - SSI Evaluations(10/03 - 12/03) White Plains, NY
Warwick Valley Psychological Center - Psychological Evaluations (4/88 - present) Warwick, NY
Ulster BOCES - Bilingual Assessments (9/92 -6/00) Native Language Assessment Program New Paltz, NY
Mercy Manor - Adult Residence - Therapy (1/98 - 8/00) Mercy Community Hospital
"Understanding Columbine" - Cable 6 Television 04/99 Guest Interview Middletown, NY