Institute for Trade, Standards and Sustainable Development (ITSSD)

E-mail: info@itssd.org

The Institute for Trade, Standards and Sustainable Development is an independent, non-profit educational organization dedicated to the promotion of a positive paradigm of sustainable development consistent with private property, free market and WTO rules-based principles. ITSSD examines evolving international law and policy as it relates to trade, science, technology and sustainable economic freedom and development around the world and emphasizes the importance of economic growth, free markets, the rule of law, strong intellectual property rights, scientific discovery, technological innovation, and the establishment of balanced, science-based and cost-effective national regulatory and standards systems.

Information is taken mainly from secondary sources and UNESCAP accepts no responsibility for its accuracy. Mention of any companies and their products does not imply endorsement by the United Nations.

The designations employed and the presentation of the material in this publication do not imply the expression of any opinion whatsoever on the part of the Secretariat of the United Nations concerning the legal status of any country, territory, city or area, or of its authorities, or concerning the delimitation of its frontiers or boundaries.
